INTRODUCTION

We are an integrated real estate investment and development business envisioned to deliver excellence in real estate. In recent years, we have sourced and developed assets by understanding real estate development and investment. With our knowledge and expertise we realised the need for an ethical, honest and professional acquisition service that delivers excellence in real estate; this is the purpose of Redefine Living Group.

Redefine Living Group is a client tailored real estate advisory service providing private clients with an end-to-end residential and commercial acquisitions service. We provide private clients with market leading intelligence and investment opportunities because this is what they demand.

We work with individual UHNW investors, institutions, funds, REIT's and family offices acquiring assets in the region of £1m-£200m+

'Delivering excellence in real estate - it's our intelligence, expertise, global network and deal-flow.'

FOUNDER & CEO

SALIM S.A.K KAPASI

Salim is the Founder and Director of the Redefine Living Group. Having years of experience, and challenges in his personal and professional life he has developed the commitment, passion and focus to prosper. Coming from a family of academics and business professionals, he is continuing this tradition into real estate development, acquisitions and investment. He epitomises the values of honesty, trust and integrity, and this resonates in every relationship and project.

Salim has an analytical nature, with an under estimated confidence giving him great leadership qualities. He has the capabilities of building and nurturing high performance teams. He has successfully raised investment capital in joint venture relationships. Understanding the need to evolve as a leader, he continues to develop his leadership, finance and business knowledge. The experience gained, will add to his skillset and foster high calibre trusting relationships.

From the very beginning, he is a professional with a holistic knowledge in real estate; raising finance and business development. Having completed five years of medical school training and working as an adult and children safeguarding officer; he has the ambition, intellect and integrity to meet the demands to scale a real estate investment and development business to become a global player. Salim's vision, desire and long-term thinking with the unrivalled work and moral ethics, he has the foundations to lead the Redefine Living Group into continued growth and success.
